My Side of the Mountain – Jean Craighead George

1. Did you enjoy the book? Which is your current favourite book club read?

2. Would you like to spend a couple of nights sleeping in Sam's tree?

3. Are you more of a city person or a wild person?

4. If you were going to run away to a mountainside like Sam did, what things would you take with you? Remember you can only take what you can carry.

5. Before you ran away, what would you research and learn about?

6. My Side of the Mountain was written by the same author, Jean Craighead George, as Julie of the Wolves. What are the similarities between Sam and Julie/Miyax? What are the differences between the two characters?

7. Sam hears the voice of Frightful in his head telling him, "You really want to be found". Do you think he did want to be found? Did he want to return to the city? What clues in the story are there to show how Sam was feeling?
